Hi Everyone,

I hope you all had an enjoyable summer as we now are either heading back to school, work, the golf course or just looking forward to cooler weather.

It is time! The "Wreaths Across America" program is in full swing to make sure that each and every veteran who has passed away, from all wars and engagements in our county's history, has a wreath placed at his/her grave this coming Christmas at all National Cemeteries across our entire country.

Please be generous this year to assure that no grave is without a wreath. Your needed donation will be greatly appreciated.

See the attached order form. The amount asked for is very small compared to the sacrifices our deceased brave veterans gave on behalf of our country and freedoms. The sooner your contribution is received the sooner we will be able to purchase/confirm that no deceased veteran is without a wreath.

Best and God Bless,
George Linardos
